

Stanley... Live, Work & Play Well!

Strategically located halfway between Green Bay and Minneapolis & St. Paul, along Highway 29 in west central Wisconsin, Stanley is a warm-hearted community of 3,849 and straddles Chippewa and Clark Counties.

It offers a fine balance of businesses, products, services, housing, plus good schools and varied recreational opportunities.

Stanley was settled and platted in 1881. The town is named for Lemuel C. Stanley, a merchant and railroad man from Chippewa Falls who was involved in that first plat. The city is home to Ace Ethanol, Wisconsin's first large-scale ethanol producer, and the Stanley Correctional Institution, a medium security facility housing 1500 inmates and employing 405.

The community is known for Chapman Park, with its annual rodeo, modern campgrounds, elk park, ball fields, volleyball, tennis, and basketball courts.

Just a few of the things you will want to visit when passing through:

- Veterans Memorial Park
- Otter Lake Recreation Area to go fishing, hunting, and explore the trails
- Stanley Area Historical Society Museum
- High School Pool and Fitness Center

With Stanley's unique downtown, you will find shopping boutiques, locally owned restaurants, businesses, and professional services ready to welcome residents and visitors.
